

Ala. Code 1975, § 15-20A-10(d)

Failing to Notify upon Name Change
(Adult)

The defendant is charged with failing to notify local law enforcement that he/she has changed his/her name as an adult sex offender.

A person commits the crime of failing to notify local law enforcement that he/she has changed his/her name as an adult sex offender if he/she is an adult sex offender and immediately upon any name change, he/she fails to immediately appear in person to update the information with local law enforcement in each county in which he/she is required to register.

To convict, the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt each of the following elements:

- (1) The defendant was an adult sex offender;
- (2) The defendant, immediately upon any name change, failed to immediately appear in person to update the information with local law enforcement in each county in which he/she is required to register; (AND)
- (3) The defendant did so knowingly.

An adult sex offender is a person convicted of a sex offense. [15-20A-4(1)]

A sex offense includes any of the following offenses: [Insert all appropriate from 15-20A-5].

A conviction is a verdict or finding of guilt as the result of a trial, a plea of guilty, a plea of nolo contendere, or an Alford plea regardless of whether adjudication was withheld. Conviction includes, but is not limited to, a conviction in a United States territory, a conviction in a federal or military tribunal, including a court martial conducted by the Armed Forces of the United States, a conviction for an offense committed on an Indian reservation or other federal property, a conviction in any state of the United States or a conviction in a foreign country if the foreign country's judicial system is such that it satisfies minimum due process set forth in the guidelines under Section 111(5)(B) of Public Law 109-248. Cases on appeal are deemed convictions until reversed or overturned. [15-20A-4(4)]

Immediately is within three business days. [15-20A-4(10)]

Local law enforcement is the sheriff of the county and the chief of police if the location subject to registration is within the corporate limits of any municipality. [15-20A-4(13)]

A person acts knowingly with respect to conduct or to a circumstance described by a statute defining an offense he/she is aware that his/her conduct is of that nature or that the circumstance exists. [13A-2-2(2)]

If you find from the evidence that the State has proved beyond a reasonable doubt each of the elements of the offense, then you shall find the defendant guilty of this offense.

If you find that the State has failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt any one or more of the elements of the offense, then you cannot find the defendant guilty of this offense.
