Alabama Rules of Professional Conduct

Transactions with Persons Other Than Clients

Rule 4.3.

Dealing with Unrepresented Person.

(a) In dealing on behalf of a client with a person who is not represented by counsel, a lawyer shall not state or imply that the lawyer is disinterested. When the lawyer knows or reasonably should know that the unrepresented person misunderstands the lawyer’s role in the matter, the lawyer shall make reasonable efforts to correct the misunderstanding.

(b) A person to whom limited-scope representation is being provided or has been provided in accordance with Rule 1.2(c) is considered to be unrepresented for purposes of this rule unless the opposing lawyer has been provided with a written notice of the limited-scope representation. If such notice is provided, the person is considered to be unrepresented regarding matters not designated in the notice of limited-scope representation.

[Amended eff. 3-26-2012.]

Comment

An unrepresented person, particularly one not experienced in dealing with legal matters, might assume that a lawyer is disinterested in loyalties or is a disinterested authority on the law, even when the lawyer represents a client. During the course of a lawyer’s representation of a client, the lawyer should not give advice to an unrepresented person other than the advice to obtain counsel.

Comparison with Former Alabama Code of Professional Responsibility

There was no direct counterpart to this Rule in the former Code. DR 7-104(A)(2) provided that a lawyer shall not “[g]ive advice to a person who is not represented by a lawyer, other than the advice to secure counsel....”
