

Ala. Code 1975, § 13A-2-21

Accountability for Behavior of Another

A person is accountable for the behavior of another person if he/she is made accountable by the law defining the offense.

Use Notes

This section imposes liability for the behavior of another only if the statute violated imposes such liability. Ex parte G.G., 601 So.2d 890 (Ala. 1992), on remand 601 So.2d 894.

Also consider 13A-2-23 – Accessory.

[Adopted 10-17-14.]