

Rules of Procedure of Judicial Inquiry Commission

Rule 12.

Executive committee.

The commission may appoint an executive committee consisting of the chairman and two other members of the commission to advise with the chairman on matters arising between meetings of the commission in which action is deemed desirable. If any member or members of the executive committee so appointed are not readily available to act when action by the remaining member or members is deemed desirable, the remaining member or members may select other members of the commission to serve in his or her stead.

[Amended eff. 2-1-2009.]

Note from the reporter of decisions: The order amending the Rules of Procedure of the Judicial Inquiry Commission, effective February 1, 2009, is published in that volume of Alabama Reporter that contains Alabama cases from 996 So.2d.
