

ALABAMA SMALL CLAIMS RULES

Rule M.

Appeals.

A judgment may be appealed to the circuit court by the filing of a notice of appeal in the office of the clerk of the court within fourteen days from the date of the judgment and by furnishing a bond or cash as security for costs incurred in the court, or affidavit of substantial hardship, approved by the court, in place of said bond. Notice of the right to appeal shall be given to the losing party.