

Ala. Code 1975, § 13A-10-37(a)(1)

Promoting Prison Contraband in the Second Degree
(Non-Inmate)

The defendant is charged with promoting prison contraband in the second degree.

A person commits the crime of promoting prison contraband in the second degree if he/she intentionally and unlawfully introduces within a detention facility, or provides an inmate with any narcotic, dangerous drug or controlled substance as defined in the “Alabama Controlled Substances Act,” or any amendments thereto.

To convict, the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt each of the following elements:

- (1) The Defendant introduced within a detention facility, [insert description] or provided an inmate, [insert description], with any:
 - (a) Narcotic, [insert description];
 - (b) Dangerous drug, [insert description]; (OR)
 - (c) Controlled substance as defined in the “Alabama Controlled Substances Act,” or any amendments thereto [insert description];
(AND)
- (2) The Defendant acted intentionally and unlawfully.

A detention facility is any place used for the confinement, pursuant to law, of a person:

- (a) Charged with or convicted of a criminal offense;
- (b) Charged with being or adjudicated a youthful offender, or a neglected minor or juvenile delinquent;
- (c) Held for extradition; (OR)
- (d) Otherwise confined pursuant to an order of the court. [13A-10-30(b)(2)]

A person acts intentionally with respect to a result or to conduct described by a statute defining an offense when his/her purpose is to cause that result or to engage in that conduct. [13A-2-2(1)]

If you find from the evidence that the State has proved beyond a reasonable doubt each of the above elements of promoting prison contraband in the second degree, then you shall find the defendant guilty of promoting prison contraband in the second degree.

If you find that the State has failed to prove any one or more of the elements of promoting prison contraband in the second degree, then you cannot find the defendant guilty of promoting prison contraband in the second degree.

[If lesser-included offenses are included, the Court should instruct on those offenses at this point.]
