

Ala. Code 1975, § 13A-11-144(f)

Assault of a Sports Official in the First Degree

The defendant is charged with assault of a sports official in the first degree.

A person commits assault of a sports official in the first degree if he/she commits the crime of assault in the first degree and the victim is a sports official performing official duties and the assault is a result of the official performing his or her official duties.

To convict, the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt each of the following elements:

- (1) The defendant committed the crime of assault in the first degree against another person, [insert name];
- (2) The victim was a sports official performing official duties;

(AND)

- (3) The assault was a result of the official performing his/her official duties.

[Insert applicable pattern instruction for 13A-6-20 Assault in the First Degree]

A sports official is a person at a sports event who enforces the rules of the event, such as an umpire or referee, or a person who supervises the participants, such as a coach. [13A-11-144(a)]

A sports event includes any interscholastic or intramural athletic activity in a primary, middle, junior high, or high school, college, or university, any organized athletic activity sponsored by a community, business, or nonprofit organization, any athletic activity that is a professional or semiprofessional event, and any other organized athletic activity in the state. [13A-11-144(a)]

If you find from the evidence that the State has proved beyond a reasonable doubt each of the above elements of assault of a sports official in the first degree, then you shall find the defendant guilty of assault of a sports official in the first degree.

If you find that the State has failed to prove any one or more of the elements of assault of a sports official in the first degree, then you cannot find the defendant guilty of assault of a sports official in the first degree.
