The defendant is charged with permitting child to engage in the production of child sexual abuse material.

A person commits the crime of permitting child to engage in the production of child sexual abuse material if he/she is a responsible person, as defined in Section 26-15-2, who knowingly permits or allows his/her child, ward, or dependent under 18 years of age to engage in the production of any child sexual abuse material containing a visual depiction of the child, ward, or dependent.

To convict, the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt each of the following elements:

- (1) The defendant was a responsible person, as defined in Section 26-15-2;
- (2) The defendant had a child, ward, or dependent under 18 years of age;

[13A-12-193(c)]

[Read as appropriate]: It is an affirmative defense to prosecution under this division if the actual individual purported to be under 18 years of age and engaged in sexually explicit conduct was an actual individual 18 years of age or older at the time of the offense. [13A-12-193(d)]

[Read as appropriate]: The state shall not be required to establish the actual existence or identity of the individual alleged to be under 18 years of age who is engaged in any act of sexually explicit conduct. [13A-12-194]

[13A-12-190(6)]

If you find from the evidence that the State has proved beyond a reasonable doubt each of the elements of permitting child to engage in the production of child sexual abuse material, then you shall find the defendant guilty of permitting child to engage in the production of child sexual abuse material.

If you find from the evidence that the State has failed to prove any one or more of the elements of permitting child to engage in the production of child sexual abuse material, then you cannot find the defendant guilty of permitting child to engage in the production of child sexual abuse material.

The depiction of an individual less than 18 years of age that violates this division shall constitute a separate offense for each single visual depiction.
