

Ala. Code 1975, § 13A-2-25

Accountability for Behavior of Another – Defenses

It is not a defense to a prosecution for an offense based on the behavior of another that: [Read appropriate part]

- (1) The other person has not been prosecuted for or convicted of any offense based upon the behavior in question, or has been previously acquitted, or has been convicted of a different offense or degree of offense.
- (2) The defendant belongs to a class of persons who, by definition of the offense, are legally incapable of committing the offense in an individual capacity.
