

Ala. Code 1975, § 13A-8-3(b)
THEFT OF PROPERTY FIRST DEGREE
(Unauthorized Control - Motor Vehicle)

The defendant is charged with theft of property in the first degree.

A person commits the crime of theft of property in the first degree if he/she knowingly obtains or exerts unauthorized control over a motor vehicle, the property of another, with intent to deprive the owner of his/her property.

To convict, the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt each of the following elements of theft of property in the first degree:

- (1) The defendant knowingly obtained or exerted unauthorized control over a motor vehicle, [Insert description of property], the property of another, [Insert name of owner]; (AND)
- (2) The defendant acted with intent to deprive the owner of his/her property.

The term obtains or exerts unauthorized control over property includes, but is not necessarily limited to, the taking, carrying away, or the sale, conveyance, or transfer of title to or interest in, or possession of, property.
[13A-8-1(8)]

[Read as appropriate] The term includes, but is not necessarily limited to, conduct heretofore defined or known as common law larceny by trespassory taking, common law larceny by trick, larceny by conversion, embezzlement, extortion, or obtaining property by false pretenses
[13A-8-1(8)]

Obtains means:

- a. In relation to property, to bring about a transfer or purported transfer of a legally recognized interest in the property, whether to the obtainer or another;
(OR)
- b. In relation to labor or service, to secure performance thereof. [13A-8-1(7)]

Value is not an element of the crime.[13A-8-3(b)]

An owner is a person, other than the defendant, who has possession of or any other interest in the property involved, even though that interest or possession is unlawful, and without whose consent the defendant has no authority to exert control over the property. [13A-8-1(9)]

[Read as appropriate] A secured party, as defined in Section 7-9A-102(a)(72), is not an owner in relation to a defendant who is a debtor, as defined in Section 7-9A-102(a)(28), in respect of property in which the secured party has a security interest, as defined in Section 7-1-201(37). [13A-8-1(9)]

Deprive means: [Read as appropriate]

- a. To withhold property or cause it to be withheld from a person permanently or for such period or under such circumstances that all or a portion of its use or benefit would be lost to him or her;
 - b. To dispose of the property so as to make it unlikely that the owner would recover it;
 - c. To retain the property with intent to restore it to the owner only if the owner purchases or leases it back, or pays a reward or other compensation for its return;
 - d. To sell, give, pledge, or otherwise transfer any interest in the property;
- (OR)
- e. To subject the property to the claim of a person other than the owner.
- [13A-8-1(2)]

A person acts knowingly with respect to conduct or to a circumstance when he/she is aware that his/her conduct is of that nature or that the circumstance exists. [13A-2-2(2)]

A person acts with intent to deprive another of his/her property when he/she acts with the purpose of causing that result. [13A-2-2(1)]

[Read as appropriate] It is a defense to a prosecution for this offense that the defendant honestly believed that he/she had a claim to the property or services involved which he/she was entitled to assert in the manner which forms the basis of the charge against him/her. [13A-8-12(a)]

If you find from the evidence that the State has proved beyond a reasonable doubt each of the above elements of theft of property in the first degree, then you shall find the defendant guilty of theft of property in the first degree.

If you find that the State has failed to prove any one or more of the elements of the offense of theft of property in the first degree, then you cannot find the defendant guilty of theft of property in the first degree.

[If lesser-included offenses are included, the Court should instruct on those offenses at this point.]

Use Note

The burden of injecting the above-stated defense to this offense is on the defendant, but this does not shift the burden of proof. [13A-8-12(b)] The jury should not be instructed that the defendant carries this burden.
