

Ala. Code 1975, § 13A-9-71(j)

Charitable Fraud
(Failing to Register as Professional Solicitor)

The defendant is charged with charitable fraud.

A person commits the crime of charitable fraud if he/she acts as a professional solicitor in the employ of a professional fund raiser who is required to register and knowingly: [Read all appropriate]

- (1) Does so before he/she registers with the Attorney General, or after the expiration or cancellation of his/her registration or any renewal thereof; (OR)
- (2) Does not apply for registration or renewal: [read all appropriate]
 - (a) In writing;
 - (b) Under oath;
 - (c) In the form prescribed by the Attorney General; (OR)
 - (d) Accompanied by a fee in the amount of $25 or in the amount prescribed for renewal.

To convict, the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt each of the following elements:

- (1) The defendant acted as a professional solicitor in the employ of a professional fund raiser who was required to register;
- (2) [Read all appropriate]:
 - (a) The defendant did so before he/she registered with the Attorney General, or after the expiration or cancellation of his/her registration or any renewal thereof; (OR)
 - (b) The defendant did so before he/she applied for registration or renewal: [read all appropriate]
 - (i) In writing;
 - (ii) Under oath;
 - (iii) In the form prescribed by the Attorney General; (OR)
 - (iv) Accompanied by an annual fee in the amount of $25 or in the amount prescribed for renewal; (AND)
- (3) The Defendant did so knowingly.

Professional solicitor is any person who is employed or retained for compensation by a professional fund raiser to solicit contributions for charitable purposes in this state. [13A-9-70 (10)]

Professional fund raiser is any person who for compensation or other consideration plans, conducts, manages, or carries on any drive or campaign in this state for the purpose of soliciting contributions for or on behalf of any charitable organization or any other person, or who engages in the business of, or holds himself/herself out to persons in this state as independently engaged in the business of soliciting contributions for such purposes. A bona fide officer or employee of a charitable organization is not a professional fund raiser unless his/her salary or other compensation is computed on the basis of funds to be raised, or actually raised. This section shall not apply to persons who solicit political campaign contributions on behalf of candidates for public office or initiatives on a ballot. [13A-9- 70 (9)]

Person is any individual, organization, group, association, partnership, corporation, trust, or any combination of them. [13A-9-70)(7)]

Charitable organization is any benevolent, philanthropic, or patriotic person, or one purporting to be such, consistent with the then-controlling definition provided in the Internal Revenue Code of the United States of America, which solicits and collects funds for charitable purposes and includes each local, county, or area division within this state of the charitable organization; provided the local, county, or area division has authority and discretion to disburse funds or property otherwise than by transfer to any parent organization. [13A-9-70(1)]

Charitable purpose is any charitable, benevolent, philanthropic, or patriotic purpose which is consistent with the then-controlling definition provided in the Internal Revenue Code of the United States of America. [13A-9-70(2)]

Contribution is the promise or grant of any money or property of any kind or value, including the promise to pay, except payments by members of an organization for membership fees, dues, fines, or assessments, or for services rendered to individual members, if membership in the organization confers a bona fide right, privilege, professional standing, honor, or other direct benefit, other than the right to vote, elect officers, or hold offices, and except money or property received from any governmental authority. Reference to the dollar amount of "contributions" means in the case of promises to pay, or payments for merchandise or rights of any other description, the value of the total amount promised to be paid for the merchandise or rights and not merely that portion of the purchase price to be applied to a charitable purpose. [13A-9-70(5)]

Religious organization is any society, sect, persuasion, mission, church, parish, congregation, temple, convention, or association of any of the foregoing, diocese or presbytery, or other organization, whether or not incorporated, or any employee thereof, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private party or individual associated with such an organization and that otherwise qualifies as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of Title 26, United States Code, as amended. [13A-9-70(11)]

A person acts knowingly with respect to conduct or to a circumstance when he/she is aware that his/her conduct is of that nature or that the circumstance exists. [13A-2-2(2)]

If you find from the evidence that the State has proved beyond a reasonable doubt each of the elements of the offense of charitable fraud, then you shall find the defendant guilty of charitable fraud.

If you find that the State has failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt any one or more of the elements of the offense of charitable fraud, then you cannot find the defendant guilty of charitable fraud.
