

Ala. Code 1975, § 15-20A-24

Providing False Information for Relief from Registration and Notification

The defendant is charged with providing false information for relief from registration and notification.

A person commits the crime of providing false information for relief from registration and notification if he/she provides false or misleading information regarding a petition for relief from registration and notification.

To convict, the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt each of the following elements:

- (1) The defendant provided false or misleading information regarding a petition for relief from registration and notification pursuant to 15-20A-24 by [Insert Information]; (AND)
- (2) The defendant did so knowingly.

A person acts knowingly with respect to conduct or to a circumstance described by a statute defining an offense he/she is aware that his/her conduct is of that nature or that the circumstance exists. [13A-2-2(2)]

If you find from the evidence that the State has proved beyond a reasonable doubt each of the elements of the offense, then you shall find the defendant guilty of this offense.

If you find that the State has failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt any one or more of the elements of the offense, then you cannot find the defendant guilty of this offense.

Use Notes

See 15-20A-35 for treatment of youthful offender.

[Approved 9-8-15.]