

RULES AND PROCEDURES FOR OPERATION OF
THE ALABAMA CENTER FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION, INC.

Rule VII.

Media Relations and Public Affairs.

A. The Center and the Alabama State Bar communications office have developed public service announcements for radio and television and have published brochures and flyers to promote ADR. In addition, television coverage of ADR-related events will be scheduled.

B. The Center and the public information division of the AOC will focus on promoting and encouraging ADR at the local court level.

C. The Center will maintain contact with Alabama Public Television, local bar association newsletters, and local newspapers, and submit articles for airing or publication.

D. The Center will present ADR seminars, training, and information to civic and community organizations, schools and universities, agencies, and professional organizations to educate the public about alternatives to litigation.

E. The Center, through its Director, will publish articles in national ADR newsletters, magazines, and journals.
