APPENDIX

Regulation 5.5, Rules for Mandatory Continuing Legal Education

5.5 Activities that cross academic, civic, and educational lines, such as accounting-tax seminars and poll-worker programs, may be considered for approval. For poll-worker programs, either the Secretary of State's Office or the County Probate Office must certify the attorney's training, attendance, and hours worked. In addition to receiving the required training, the attorney must work at the polls a minimum of eight hours in a day to earn four hours of credit. Credit under this regulation is capped at eight hours per year.
